But is Henry J. Raymond the proper man

While we are upon this subject, we may as well advert to an argument pre

This letter-writer asserts that Judge

Spalding's efforts to retain Presidential favor are caused by his desire to stand well with the heads of departments, so as

The Fenians.

New York, June 10 .- Specials from Albana yesterday announce the finale of the Fenian invasion of Canada. The right wing of the Fenian army retreated from Pigeon Hill to that place, and members are proparing to go home. The demoralization of the whole force was complete. Both of-ficers and men refused to do further duty. Desertions by the wholesale took place, and after a council of war Gen. Spear ordered a retreat to St. Albans. Reinforcements, arms and ammunition failed to reach them. Ammunition was carried to Vermont and tored in a barn near the line, where it will Mahon wept bitterly.
